三、阅读理解

Part 1

Peter and Linda use different forms of transportation to get to work. Peter likes to ride his bike, especially when the weather is nice. But if the weather is cold and rainy, he takes the bus. Linda thinks driving her car to the office is convenient. That way she can get to work quickly, no matter what the weather is like.

Linda: Hi, Peter. How was traffic this morning?

Peter: Traffic was really terrible today.

L: Why? Did something in particular happen?

P: The car in front of my bike wanted to turn left, but the driver did not use his to turn signal and stopped suddenly. He almost caused an accident.

L: I'm glad there was no accident.

P: Me, too. People need to be polite when they drive.

L: What do you mean?

P: People should use their turn signals properly. That helps others know what you plan to do.

L: I do not know. Using turn signals doesn't seem like a big deal to me. Drivers can pay attention to what's happening on the road and respond quickly.

P: Showing respect for other drivers doesn't take much effort. For example, allowing someone to cut in front of you can make a big difference during the rush hour.

L: Allowing other cars to cut in front of you slows you down.

P: Not really. Everyone is sharing the same road, so we need to be careful of other vehicles.

L: If you're so worried about traffic rules, maybe you should just take the bus more often.

P: Or maybe I should get a new job as a traffic officer.
